

RENTERS SHAPE THIS CITY

75%

OF ATHENS HOMES ARE RENTALS

which means renters are the supermajority in this town

$2,330

AVERAGE ANNUAL RENTAL UNIT PROPERTY TAX

and that's just one of multiple local taxes renters pay thousands into

CITY LEADERSHIP IS FAILING RENTERS

1 IN 4

ANNUAL INSPECTIONS WERE BYPASSED IN 2024

while city staff focused on collecting
$1,482,002 in parking fees and fines

110 of 113

RENTAL INSPECTIONS WERE FAILED OVER 14 YEARS

by one landlord, who was long welcomed on the city's zoning board

WE NEED TO CLAIM OUR POWER

24%

OF ATHENS VOTERS

so the renter supermajority is only actually casting $\frac{1}{4}$ of all ballots

ONLY 2

CITIZEN-LED BALLOT ISSUES IN CITY HISTORY

but what if we all united to put rental policies on the ballot and vote them in?
